MULTIVIEW CARDS

Multiview cards were often issued as part of a release of small sets of cards. Hambrook created many of them and their uniform designs enable us to identify many groups which were made for shops in Kent villages and which therefore bear the name of those shops rather than that of Hambrook.

DESIGN I

Five images in sepia with 'GREETINGS FROM [...]' and flowers above and below. The pictures usually come from the numbered 'H Bros S' series; pre-1914. The following are known:

ASH	Waddington [HB1155]; Guilton; High Street [HB1138]; High Street [HB1139; also coloured (published 'Austin Beer')]; St Nicholas Church [HB1136]
