

The former boundary between Birling and Snodland was the stream (which is now mostly buried)
 There is occasional doubt about the order, particularly with the 1921 census.

MALLING ROAD WEST

The west side houses were built soon after Malling Road ceased to be a toll road in 1878. To begin with, there was no access from Bull Fields beside the backs of the upper High Street shops:

In later years there was a small shop (Mrs Germaney) next to the flats at the south end shown above, but this disappeared eventually and is now a car park. Behind the 'Motor Garage' was and is a brick house which for many years was used by William Charles Thomas, a boot and shoe repairer.

No. 2

'Toilet Saloon' next to Chalklen's; Wyndham House; 'Garage'
